

CITY OF RICHMOND
HISPANIC LIAISON OFFICE

---

Getting Involved with the City of Richmond's Hispanic Liaison Office

There are many opportunities for individuals or community organizations to work with and support the City of Richmond's Hispanic Liaison Office (HLO). Please contact Tanya Gonzalez at Tanya.Gonzalez@richmondgov.com or Paz Ochs at Paz.Ochs@richmondgov.com, or call 646-0145 for more information.

- Volunteer in the office assisting with phone calls, filing, helping customers, and other tasks as assigned
- Volunteer for community projects or community events on behalf of the HLO, such as festivals, tax sites, open houses
- Volunteer by assisting the HLO in spreading the word about community events and information by helping to post and distribute flyers or forwarding informative emails
- Volunteer by participating in a variety of needs assessment activities, such as focus groups, surveys, etc.
- Support the HLO initiatives to effect change, such as partnerships with the Richmond Police Department, and participating in civic organizations or events
- Volunteer in the collaborative network Colaborando Juntos, which encourages grassroots participation
- Inform the HLO of your organization's community events, needs, and resources

Visit us at www.richmondgov.com.