Our Promise:
The Richmond Department of Parks, Recreation, and Community Facilities (PRCF) promises to make available, affordable, accessible, and enjoyable activities for all children in the City of Richmond. To keep this promise, our staff will reduce fees based on ability to pay. Please discuss your needs with our recreation staff.

Government Access Station:
Tune in to Channel 17 for current announcements of programs, trips, and special events. Only available with Verizon Fios and Comcast cable services.

Volunteer Services:
We encourage support from parents and members of the community. If you are interested in volunteer opportunities, please contact your local community center or park staff member.

Inclusion Statement:
All programs and activities are open to everyone without regard to race, religion, sex, national origin, handicap, or political affiliation.

Non City Resident Fee:
Non city residents must pay an additional $20 fee per program or activity.

On-going Programs:
Please note that on-going programs will expire August 31, 2019 and require registering again.

Note:
PRCF cannot take cash as a form of payment for any of the programs that we offer. We accept money orders, cashier checks, credit cards, and personal checks. Checks and money orders should be made payable to “City of Richmond.”

Inclement Weather Policy:
If Richmond Public Schools are closed, community centers will operate from 11:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.

City Holidays:
The City of Richmond offices and buildings will be closed on the following holidays:

Swim Lessons
The objectives of the Learn to Swim courses are to teach children, teens, and adults to be safe in, on, and around the water and to swim well. Aquatic and personal water safety skills are taught in a logical progression through six levels.

Participants in Level 1 are oriented to the aquatic environment and gain some basic skills in each category. As they progress through the levels, participants build on their basic skills to learn and refine various propulsive movements on the front, back, and side. On successful completion of Level 3, participants will have achieved basic water skills competency in a pool environment.

Registration for all Learn to Swim classes will occur the week prior to the program start date from noon to 8 p.m. at the designated pool location. All registrations can be done online or in person.
Unfortunately, the Aquatics Division is unable to hold spaces due to previous enrollment, age, group, or level of the child. Each class is on a first come, first served basis until all classes and levels are full. Please note that classes are subject to change or be cancelled due to inclement weather. We will work to schedule make up classes; however there might be times that classes can not be made up.

Richmond’s largest, most unique and best known park is actually a system of parks along both sides of the James River as it passes through the city, making Richmond the only urban city in the country with Class IV white water rapids in the middle of downtown. The 600 acre park itself is an area of unspoiled natural beauty and adventure recreation unlike that found in any other city in the country.

The park’s wilderness shoreline amid woods, islands, meadows and rocks offers opportunities for canoeing, kayaking, tubing, walking, jogging, hiking, rock-climbing, biking, fishing, boating, swimming, sunning, bird watching, and studying nature. Many of these activities are just blocks from the city’s downtown residential, business and financial districts. The park trails are excellent for hiking and mountain biking and offer new enjoyment in each season.

The park is open from sunrise to sunset. No alcoholic beverages, glass containers, or unleashed pets are allowed in city parks.

Pump House Tour

Located on the North Bank of the James River, the multi-use Pump House was constructed on the same site as the first canal lock system in the United States. It was an architectural marvel when it was constructed, and its grace and beauty continue to resonate today. The downstairs was a public use pumping station and the upstairs was a venue for lavish events and dances until the mid 1920’s. Come visit the Pump House for a brief tour of its remarkable history. The building will be open for exploration, and tours will leave approximately every 30 minutes.

The Department of Parks, Recreation and Community Facilities operate seven municipal cemeteries. Although all of the cemeteries have historical interest, the four that are particularly noteworthy are the following:

Shockoe Hill Cemetery
Located in the downtown area of Richmond on Hospital Street. Within its grounds are buried such luminaries as John Marshall, the revered U.S. Supreme Court Justice; Elmira Shelton, said to be Edgar Allan Poe’s fiancée and inspiration for the “Lost Lenore” in his poem The Raven; John Allan, Poe’s boyhood friend; Peter Francisco, the Revolutionary War hero; 220 Confederate and 577 Union soldiers; and Elizabeth VanLew, the Union spy who operated a “safe” house during the War Between the States.

This cemetery is on the Virginia Landmarks Register and National Register of Historic Places.

Historic St. John’s Church Cemetery
Located on the grounds of St. John’s Church in Richmond’s oldest neighborhood of Church Hill at 24th and Broad streets. The City owns the Broad Street side of the cemetery. This cemetery is the resting place of Elizabeth Arnold Poe, mother of Edgar Allan Poe and George Wythe (who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence). The church is the site of Patrick Henry’s rousing “Give me liberty or give me death!” speech. The dates and times for reenactments of Patrick Henry’s famous speech can be obtained by calling St. John’s Church at 804-649-0263.

This cemetery is on the National Register of Historic Places.

Barton Heights Cemeteries
The City also maintains the inactive Barton Heights Cemeteries located between St. James Street and Lamb Avenue. In 1815, the Burial Ground Society of the Free People of Color established the first cemetery here. That cemetery became known as Cedarwood. Five more cemeteries were established adjoining Cedarwood. These cemeteries were established by the burial society and/or religious organizations. The other cemeteries are Sons and Daughters of Ham, Ebenezer, Methodist, Sycamore, and Union Mechanics.

The Barton Heights Cemeteries are on the Virginia Landmarks Register and the National Register of Historic Places.

Oakwood Cemetery
Located at 3101 East Nine Mile Road, Oakwood is the final resting place of 17,000 Confederate soldiers, casualties from several battles fought in the Richmond area during the War Between the States. According to information from The Dahlgren Affair by Duane Schultz, Yankee Colonel Dahlgren was buried in a secret cave in Oakwood Cemetery in March 1864, and removed by Elizabeth VanLew under cover of night on April 6, 1864. The body was taken out of Richmond by VanLew under a wagon load of peach trees and reburied the next day on a farm at Hungary Station. His body was returned to Philadelphia in October 1865 for a burial in the North Hill Cemetery.

This cemetery is on the National Register of Historic Places.

We’re More Than Just Parks.

YES, we maintain more than 170 parks and open spaces for the enjoyment of our youth, their families and welcomed tourists.

BUT, we also offer exceptional recreation and leisure programs that contribute to the cultural landscape of Richmond.

One such program is the City Dance Program, which offers training in a variety of dance disciplines including jazz, tap and ballet.

Students mastering the necessary techniques and strength are encouraged to audition for the City Dance Theatre’s performing company, which appears statewide and travels to national competitions.

As a competition team, the City Dance Theater have received critical acclaim and have performed at Disney World’s Magic Kingdom, the Epcot Center, and with the Richmond Symphony.

At the completion of each season, the ensemble closes with a public recital.

SO, visit our website -- connect with our social media platforms and find out what else PRCF is doing to enhance the overall quality of life for citizens and visitors to the City of Richmond.
