

Interruption of Deferred Retirement Option Program (DROP) for Military Service

In the event a member's participation in the DROP is interrupted by military service, their monthly retirement allowance will continue to accumulate in their DROP account for the remainder of their tenure in the program. Participation in the DROP will cease if the member elects to terminate employment with the City of Richmond during the period of military service.